- B. Franchises must hold registrations on first come basis, for participants within their assigned territory and boundary, and place on a preliminary roster, number 1 through 36.
- C. Franchises may sign up POTENTIAL WAIVERED PARTICIPANTS during open registrations only; however, they may not take a place of a participant from within the assigned territory.
 - a. These participants seeking waivers will be placed on slot 37 and below on the preliminary roster (waiting list).
 - b. No fees are to be collected at this time for any potential wavered participant.
 - c. There are to be no guaranteed positions given on any team/squad at this time to any participant seeking a waiver.
 - d. Franchises will continue registering participants from within their territory, and place these individuals on slots prior to 37.
- D. Waiver requests must be filled out completely and signed by both franchise presidents and the participant's parent.
- E. Completed waiver requests are to be submitted to the NJAYF Secretary, not prior to June 15th annually and prior to the last Monday in July Annually.
